

DAY OF MOURNING

Tuesday, April 28

Toronto – 12:00
York Region – 11:00

TORONTO

12:00 , High Park

This year's April 28th Day of Mourning event in Toronto is being moved to recognize the tragic accident that killed two bricklayers last month.

The new location will be at High Park, south side of Bloor Street just east of High Park Ave. The ceremony which includes honouring Brothers Luigi Cudini and Shane Jennings starts at 12:00 noon, and many of the workers from the jobsite are expected to join in.

The builder, Daniels Group, is well respected for its dedication to health and safety in the construction industry, and the contractor Venice Masonry is a long-standing unionized firm.

YORK REGION

11:00 a.m., Woodbridge Arena

The York Region event will take place as usual at the Woodbridge Memorial Arena, Highway #7 and Islington, featuring Corale Veneto, starting at 11:00 am.

The ceremony will include honouring Brother Mark Attallah of Carpenters Local 27 who died on April 21st.

Please take the time to join either event as we pledge to mourn the dead and fight for the living – every working day.

