

PLEASE COME TO TRWC LETTER WRITING EVENT!

On Tuesday March 3rd the PSAC Toronto Regional Women's Committee will be holding a letter writing event & pizza party! We will write letters to Canadian Government officials asking them to make changes to government policy and practice. The campaigns we will address are: 1) Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and 2) Have a Heart for First Nation's Children, which is about caring Canadians working together to ensure that First Nations children have proper services that make them feel proud of who they are! This act of letter writing promotes the basic human rights of some of the most vulnerable members of our Canadian society. We will have tips and information available to help you with your letter writing. For those who wish we can provide a template to make it easy!

All PSAC women are invited and encouraged to attend.

Please come out and offer your support. If possible, bring some markers and other crafting material to make creative letters that will stand out. We will have supplies available also.

When: March 3, 2015 5:30-8:00pm

Where: Large Boardroom, 90 Eglinton Ave. East, Suite 608

Who: All PSAC Women are invited
